Date:	12 May 2023 (Friday)
Time:	4:00 pm to 6:00 pm (registration starts at 3:45pm)
Venue:	AIRSIDE, 2 Concorde Road, Kai Tak, Kowloon
Assembly place:	AIRSIDE G/F Office lobby entrance at Muk Yuen Street
No. of participants:	30
Fee:	Free of Charge for CIBSE members
Registration and Deadline:	Via https://www.cibse.org.hk by 5 May 2023

Programme Highlight:

AIRSIDE is a 1.9 million sq. ft mixed-use commercial development in the Kai Tak area, the new Central Business District (CBD 2.0). The flagship project, is a 47-storey mixed-use development, which comprises a 32-storey of Grade A office and a multi-storey retail complex, complete with an interconnected underground shopping street. AIRSIDE embraces a new urban lifestyle concept of wholeness, inviting everyone and the community to gather at a place where you can be yourself and connect to others and nature.

AIRSIDE is also advocating a sustainable green lifestyle supported by unique facilities, with a number of firsts in Hong Kong achieved, such as Hong Kong's first smart bicycle parking system, automated refuse collection system with common chute for recycling collection, and first in Hong Kong commercial development connecting the Kai Tak District Cooling System, marking AIRSIDE as one of the most environmentally friendly landmarks in town.

In addition, AIRSIDE is the first-ever building in Hong Kong that has received five highest sustainable building certifications: US LEED® Final Platinum, WELL Building Standard™ Final Platinum, BEAM Plus Neighbourhood Final Platinum, BEAM Plus New Building Provisional Platinum and China Green Building Label Final 3-Star.

The two hours technical visit will bring to CIBSE members in a holistic view on the Nan Fung's ESG commitment - SEWIT Initiatives, project briefing of AIRSIDE in particular on building services engineering and sustainability in the first session. Members will be guided to visit a variety of facilities in the AIRSIDE afterwards.
